Kentucky BOURBON FESTIVAL

Elevate Your Spirits . . .

and your collection of Kentucky Bourbon Festival pins!

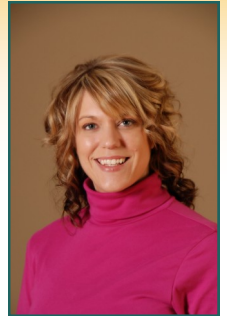

This marks the fifth year a collectible pin has been issued for the Festival, and to commemorate the event, a special set of all five pins is available in a keepsake box.

Each year, a pin is designed to reflect the theme chosen for the Festival. These pins are necessary for admission to the Spirit Garden and also make wonderful souvenirs of the Festival.

The collector's set can be purchased for $30. The set is available for online purchase at the Bardstown-Nelson County Chamber of Commerce website, www.bardstownchamber.com, or at the Chamber office, One Court Square. Individual pins from the past years are also available for $5 each. The 2010 pin costs $3, or two for $5, and will be available for purchase at several local businesses, in addition to the Chamber office. For those pins ordered online, there is a fee for shipping and handling.

Chamber Members on the Move...

Amber Ellis

Amber Ellis is the newest member of one of our local radio stations here in Bardstown. She is an Account Executive with 102.7 WYSB. Amber was born and raised in Nelson County and has no plans to leave anytime soon. Amber moved away for a couple of years to Georgetown, KY, but came back home. "Bardstown is such a beautiful town and a great community to raise a child in. There is no place like home." Amber is married with one small child.

Amber took over the duties of Account Executive with 102.7 WYSB in May. "My main goal in this position is to help our local businesses grow through advertising to the best of my ability. We need our local businesses to carry on as the town we are." She is also striving to become more involved in the community. She intends to be that face you see everywhere, volunteering at a Chamber event or helping your business advertise whether it is new, old or running in a marathon.

"So far my job has been amazing and brought me so many new experiences, I am loving every minute of it."

You can contact Amber Ellis at 502-350-4482 or by email, aellis@commonwealthbroadcasting.com.
