RIBBON CUTTINGS 2025

XLR8 Classes

In 2025, the Chamber held a series on Workplace Professional Skills. The classes included: Organizational Skills, Taking Initiative, Creativity – Thinking Outside the Box and Managing Workplace Anxiety.

A huge thank you to our amazing sponsors who made this program possible: LG&E KU, Town & Country Bank and Trust Co., Suntory Global Spirits, Lux Row Distillers, Lincoln National Bank, Sarah Curtsinger - State Farm Insurance Agent, and Elizabethtown Community & Technical College.

Chamber of Secrets Conference

The Chamber of Secrets Conference, brought together business owners, professionals, and community leaders for a day of learning and networking. The conference featured sessions on leadership, business management, HR compliance, design tools, stress management, and personal growth, providing attendees with practical strategies to strengthen their organizations. Thank you to our Key to Success Sponsor, Town and Country Bank and Trust Co., and our Supporting Sponsors, Distill Inn and Sarah Curtsinger, State Farm Agent, for making this event possible.

CHEERS TO BARDSTOWN

Partnered with Bardstown Main Street, Cheers to Bardstown is a celebration of our community at the Farmers Market. This day was full of shopping, eating, bourbon, beer, dancing, vendors, and more! Thank you again to everyone who came out to support the community.

IT'S A SHOP LOCAL CHRISTMAS

The Bardstown-Nelson County Chamber of Commerce celebrated Shop Small Saturday in Historic Downtown Bardstown with a day full of holiday cheer and community fun. Downtown was bustling as families shopped local, enjoyed breakfast with Santa, painted ornaments, rode the trolley, took photos with Santa, and completed their Shopping Passports. The event filled the streets with holiday magic, laughter, and lasting memories, making Shop Small Saturday a special tradition for the Bardstown community.

HOMECOMING

The Bardstown-Nelson County Chamber of Commerce partnered up with My Old Kentucky Home State Park for another Home Coming Celebration. Community members gathered for an evening of games, music, food, laughter, fireworks, and more.

NATIONAL CIVICS BEE

The Bardstown-Nelson County Chamber held its second National Civics Bee at Thomas Nelson High School. Middle school students from across the region gathered to test their civics knowledge to win the top prize of $500 dollars and for the chance to compete in the statewide competition held at the Kentucky State Fair.

CHAMBER CHASE

Awarded the Events Excellence by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce Executives. Families, Co-workers, and Friends spent 10 days supporting local businesses and collecting points to compete for prizes! The impact that 10 days had on local businesses was amazing!

Impact of the Chamber Chase by the numbers:

- 17 Teams
- 51 Players
- 53 5K Participants
- 207 visits to local businesses
- 161 visits to local restaurants
- 154 visits to local attractions, museums, and historical landmarks
- 522 total challenges completed
- $1100 will be donated to local non-profits and will be given in prizes as chamber checks (staying in our community)
- The estimated economic impact was over $3500 in 10 days!

These winners completed all 100 challenges in 10 days:

- 1st Place: My Old Kentucky Homie
- 2nd Place: Wilma & Karla Chasers60
- 3rd Place: Mission Accomplished Morans
- 4th Place: Sisters of Charity of Nazareth
- 5th Place: Jess & Nat
- 6th Place: Rollers for the Win
- 7th Place: Bunny Bunch

BREAKFAST ON THE DINNER TRAIN

All Aboard! Last fall, we hosted a sold-out “Breakfast on the Dinner Train” sponsored by Abound Credit Union. Guests enjoyed a delightful morning excursion aboard the train, savoring a delicious breakfast while taking in the scenic beauty of the surrounding countryside.

COOKING UP DELICIOUS BUSINESS FOR KENTUCKY.

The delectable delight inside this microwave came from one of the 1,600 companies LG&E and KU have helped expand or move to our state.

Those companies have generated more than 100,000 new jobs in Kentucky in aerospace, advanced manufacturing, healthcare and the food and beverage industries.

We're committed to helping our state's economy grow and dedicated to helping create new jobs for Kentuckians. Visit lge-ku.com/better to learn more about our recipe for economic development.

Bardstown.

Hometown care at its best.

Flaget Memorial Hospital

Celebrating 75 years of serving the Bardstown community, Flaget Memorial Hospital has a rich tradition of award-winning care for Nelson and surrounding communities. Flaget received the Gold Seal of Approval by The Joint Commission, has been recognized as a Blue Distinction Center for hip and knee replacement, and has received an “A” Hospital Safety Grade from the The Leapfrog Group. The cancer center holds national accreditation from the Commission on Cancer.
